

R.A. Villamil & Cía. Box Factory

Inspiring stories one box at a time since 1998

Rolando Antonio Villamil

Rolando A. Villamil was born in Santiago, DR. In 1981, he began his journey in the tobacco industry at Compañía Tabacalera, SA (Cotasa). Since then, tobacco became his lifelong passion, and he devoted himself to developing the industry.

For Rolando, a cigar box was not just a collection of wooden pieces; it represented an inviting opportunity to indulge in the pleasure of a good cigar.

R.A. Villamil & Cía. Box Factory

Established in 1998 as Cibox, the company embarked on its journey of manufacturing premium cigar boxes in Santiago and in 2010, it underwent a name change to R.A. Villamil & Cía. Following the unfortunate passing of Mr. Rolando, in 2022 Carla Pimentel assumed the prominent role of the primary company shareholder.

For a remarkable quarter-century, R.A. Villamil & Cía. has been dedicated to supplying the tobacco industry with top-notch packaging solutions.

Carla Pimentel Rincón

Carla Pimentel Rincón took her initial steps in the tobacco industry back in 2006 as a Supply Chain trainee at Industria del Tabaco Leon Jimenes. Her passion for the field intensified when she joined Charles Fairmorn Intl. in 2009, where Mr. Rolando Villamil hired her to manage various departments.

After more than a decade of working closely together, Carla and Mr. Villamil developed a strong bond and shared the passion for tobacco. Carla assumed leadership of the Box Factory, carrying forward his remarkable legacy.
